ALZEEKA Tutorial

link : https://alzeeka.github.io/alzeeka/

whatsapp : +967714291911

True or Flase:

1. Java is a procedural programming language. (False)
2. Object-oriented programming (OOP) views a program as consisting of objects that interact with each other. (True)
3. All Java application programs start with a method named "main". (True)
4. Java applets can only be run from a web browser. (False)
5. System.out.println is used for receiving input from the user in Java. (False)
6. Method invocation in Java involves an object, a dot, the method name, and a pair of parentheses. (True)
7. Variable declarations in Java specify the name and value of a variable. (False)
8. The equal sign (=) in Java is used for comparison between two values. (False)
9. High-level languages need to be translated into machine language before they can be executed. (True)
10. The Java Virtual Machine (JVM) translates Java programs into byte-code, which is a machine language for a specific computer. (True)